It would be better to learn Sanskrit and try to make it a truly living language.

The Mother

AuroBharati, Sri Aurobindo Society, Union Territory of Puducherry, India presents

International Sanskrit Study & Research Circle

Workshop on Textual Tradition, Manuscriptology & Paleography

Facilitator: Dr. Kishor Kumar Tripathy

Date and Time: 3rd February, 2024, 05.00 p.m.
“What we call Sanskrit is the divine language, as commented upon by the great sages.”

International Sanskrit Study & Research Circle

Sanskrit is the language in which India’s soul is reflected and expressed. Sanskrit as a language is fully conscious of itself, it can also be a means to become more conscious of our experiences, feelings and thoughts. To continue research, publication and dissemination activities in the areas of Sanskrit, AuroBharati, Sri Aurobindo society presents ‘Sanskrit Study and Research Circle.’ Objective of this study circle is to disseminate the works of Sri Aurobindo on Sanskrit and associated knowledge system and to encourage inter-disciplinary study and research in different aspects of Sri Aurobindo’s philosophy.

Workshop on Textual Tradition, Manuscriptology & Paleography

Objective of the workshop is to discuss about significant aspects of Sanskrit language including the textual traditions. This will also focus on manuscriptology and palaeography, including origin and development of scripts, history of manuscripts, cataloguing and preservation of manuscripts.
